Greetings from Romania!

I want to thank you so much for your continued financial support. Your gifts are an investment in my life and also in what God is doing in Romania. Thank you so much for all you do! Thank you for your every financial gift! For your every prayer. For your every word of encouragement!

In 1 Sam 30, we read that once while David and his men were off raiding and harassing the enemies of God, the Amalekites came to their homes in Ziklag and took all their belongings, their wives and their children. God sent David's small army to get back what the enemy had stolen. Later on in the story, part of the men remained with their equipment while the others continued the pursuit against the enemy. The thing that I want to point out is vs. 24 After a great victory and coming home with rich plunder, David insisted that "The share of the man who stayed with the supplies is to be the same as that of him who went down to the battle. All will share alike." What I am saying is this, even though your part may seem insignificant... something like remaining with the baggage... it is not insignificant at all! Your gifts and prayers have enabled me to "go down to the battle" and to plunder the enemy. The kingdom way of sharing the rewards is that you will actually get the same share as I do! Now THAT is a good investment! What is happening now is amazing, but the best is yet to come. We are expecting nothing less than increase until there is full revival. You are a part of this in Romania!

Praise God with me for what He did during the month of November. I was “pastoring” the church while David and Mihaela (my pastors) were ministering in the United States. This was a wonderful time of continuing to take ground from the enemy after the breakthroughs we got during October’s intense “month of glory”. We had many special surprises from God...explosive praise meetings, healings, amazing things!

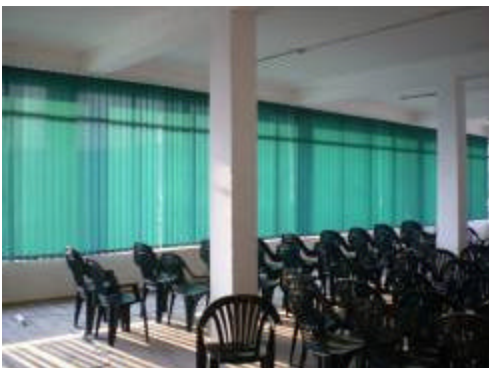

Thanks so much for standing with me! May God open the gates of heaven over you so that your cup is filled to overflowing. “O magnify the Lord with me! And let us exalt His name together!” Ps 34:3 For He has truly done great things!

Love,
